

How can you think about weakening the NJ DO NOT CALL PROGRAM?
Everyone has a right to their privacy, and deserves not to have their family life interrupted by anonymous, and/or obnoxious phone calls without prior consent from the home owner.
I would think the FCC would want to protect the consumers, not make them more vulnerable.
It would be a mistake on behalf of the FCC to disrupt the DO NOT CALL PROGRAM !